Writing Assignment

“Why PFTCE should award me this scholarship.” How are you going to change the world? Share with us the career you plan to pursue, your intended course of study, and what school you will attend. Discuss your community, church, clubs, sports, or volunteer involvement. Include any special achievements, such as awards earned, dramatic turnaround in grades, behavior or attendance, or the support you give your family. Convince us why we should invest in you..

Your essay should be typed, double-spaced, minimum two, maximum three pages. Attach it to your application page.

The end of your essay must include the following certification, signed, and dated: “I hereby certify that the previous essay is an original composition created by me without assistance.” Signed (your name) and date (today’s date). Do not forget this step; your essay will be considered incomplete if the certification is not included.

Return complete application package to: PFTCE Scholarship Program, 1110 SE Alder #205, Portland, Oregon 97214.

Must be postmarked by midnight, February 29, 2008, or hand-delivered to PFTCE by 5:00pm, February 29, 2008. Late materials will not be considered.
